

00:00

[Music]

00:02

the national career service provides

00:04

high quality free and impartial

00:06

information advice and guidance to help

00:09

citizens make decisions on learning

00:11

training and work it is available to all

00:15

adults in England over the age of 13 our

00:18

universal service is primarily for

00:21

citizens beneath somewhere to go that

00:23

can provide comprehensive careers

00:25

information advice or guidance for

00:27

themselves additional users of our

00:30

service are people who use it to support

00:32

others this includes professional

00:34

careers advisers and intermediaries such

00:37

as employers teachers and parents our

00:41

service is designed to enable users to

00:43

self serve as much as possible however

00:46

some of our users need more intensive

00:48

support for self service our intuitive

00:51

digital tools and smart use of data

00:53

enable them to get a personalised

00:55

service professional careers advisors

00:58

will help provide users with additional 01:00

advice and guidance specific to their personal

01:03

01:03

circumstances if you want any more information about the national career

01:08

01:10

service please get in touch